

Cookie statement

Cookies are small files that are stored on your device (computer, tablet, phone, ...) when you visit a website. The Vandersanden websites also use cookies; they allow user preferences to be stored and statistical data to be collected, among other things. Because we want to ensure your privacy, improve our service and offer you optimal ease of use, it is important to us to inform you why we use cookies and for what purposes.

There are also other technologies that enable the collection and transfer of data, such as JavaScript and Web Beacons. These technologies and cookies are used on almost all of today's modern websites.

Our websites use our own cookies and third-party cookies. We recommend that you consult the relevant privacy and cookie policies for third-party cookies.

1 Types of cookies

There are different types of cookies:

1.1 Functional cookies

Functional cookies are cookies that are necessary to provide an accurate and user-friendly website. Some examples:

- To save your language preferences
- To detect abuse or fraud
- To save browser settings, so the website is displayed to fit the monitor dimensions

1.2 Analytical cookies

These cookies are typically third-party cookies that we use to collect statistical information regarding the use of our website, including:

- Average loading time of pages
- Pages visited
- Browser Data
- IP address
- MAC address
- Duration of a (page) visit
- Viewing duration of a video
- Downloads
- Information about the operating system
- Information about the device used
- Click behaviour and other interactions on one or more pages

These cookies and their statistical data are primarily intended to optimise our performance, security, user-friendliness, content and services after analysis.

1.3 Advertising cookies

Vandersanden can place ads on third-party websites. Advertising cookies are used to do this. Our websites may also contain these cookies in order to link the third party cookies with each other. Based on your online behaviour, which includes clicks, purchases, websites you visit, we can offer you targeted advertising. These cookies also track whether you have already viewed a specific ad.

1.4 Social media cookies

Social media cookies are always third-party cookies. They are typically used when you download and/or click a social media button.

For more information, please refer to the privacy and cookie policy of these third parties:
